Museum at Home Presents...

The Degrees of “_____”

Summary

1. Subject(s): Important figures and their impact across history.
2. Topic or Unit of Study: History
3. Grade/Level: 2nd - 4th Grade
4. Objective: Find three objects in the global network of museums that connect back to one historical figure of your choice.
5. Time Allotment: Teacher/Educator discretion.

Implementation

Instructions

1. Choose a historic figure you want to learn more about, or use a person from the list below.
    i. Rosa Parks
    ii. George Washington
    iii. Martin Luther King Jr.
    iv. Mahatma Gandhi
    v. Malala Yousafzai
    vi. William Shakespeare
    vii. Charles Darwin
    viii. Frederick Douglass
    ix. Abraham Lincoln
    x. Albert Einstein
    xi. Napoleon Bonaparte
    xii. Queen Elizabeth II
    xiii. Mozart
    xiv. Thomas Jefferson
    xv. Leonardo Da Vinci
    xvi. Jane Goodall

2. Guided Practice
    a. Have the student use the internet to find three different museums, each containing one artifact related to the historical figure they have selected. These can be...
        i. An object, artifact, or article of clothing that belonged to this person.
        ii. Something that this historical figure gave away, or gifted, to a person/museum.
        iii. A work of art that includes your historical figure as the primary subject.
        iv. A book, journal, or other written example of your historical figure's work.

3. Check for Understanding
    a. Have the student use the provided document to document their progress.
    b. Each “Degree” includes a space for the student to provide a short answer to the prompt: “How is this related to my person, and why is it important?”
    c. If a student has trouble finding an object or expressing its significance, refer to the “Three Degrees” Flow Chart (provided in this packet).
    d. Students should answer all questions with full sentences, correct spelling, and correct grammar.

Materials & Resources

a. Instructional Materials:
    a. “Three Degrees of ...” Worksheet and flow chart.
    b. A device with internet access.
    c. Optional: Pen and paper to take notes or keep track of different objects.
b. Suggested Resources:
    a. museumathome.org,
    b. Google Arts and Culture
    c. Matterport Discover
    d. Bloomberg Connects

Assessment

Students should be able to...

- [ ] Determine and express how the object is connected to their historical figure.

- [ ] Identify one Impact this historical figure had.
- [ ] Connect their historic figures objects to things they may see or experience in their daily life.

Three Degrees of _____

by _____

1st Degree

Name of the Object:

Describe the object:

_____

_____

What museum is the object from?

_____

How is this object connected to my person, and why is it important?

_____

_____

_____

_____

2nd Degree

Name of the Object:

Describe the object:

What Museum is the object from?

How is this object connected to my person, and why is it important?

3rd Degree

Name of the Object:

Describe the object:

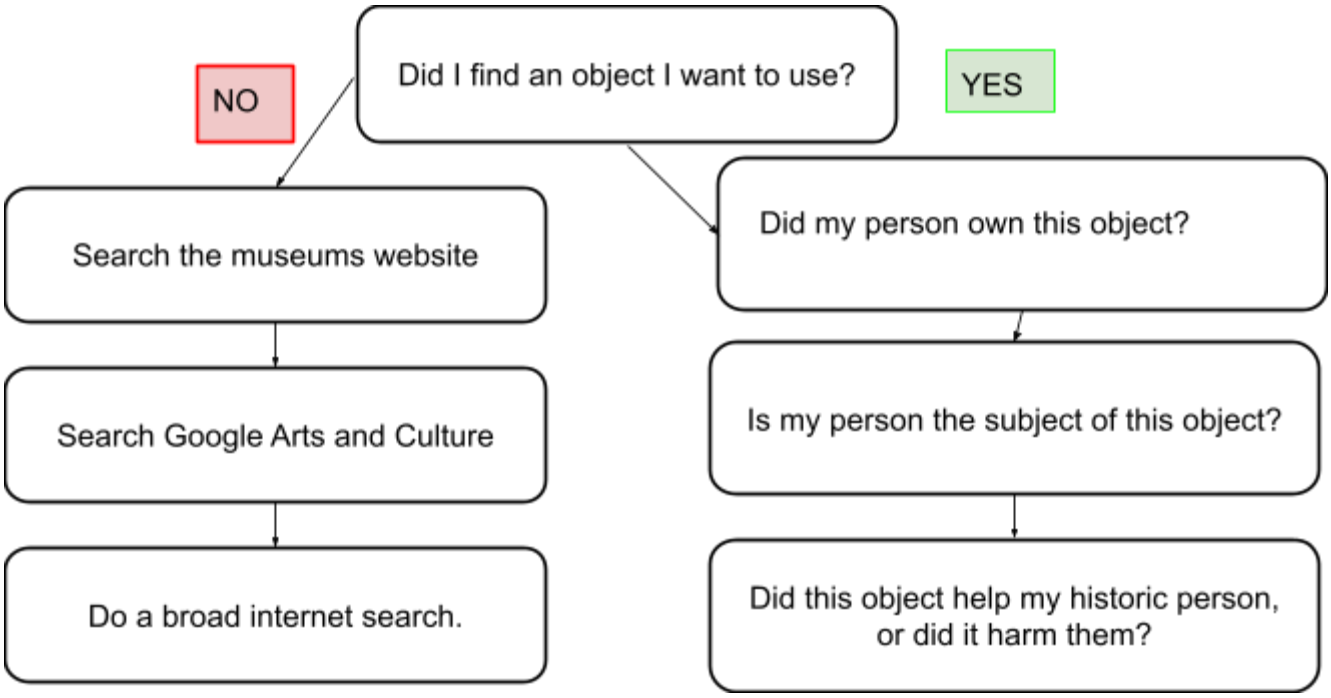

What Museum is the object from?

How is this object connected to my person, and why is it important?

I chose this person because...

My favorite object from this activity is...

“Three Degrees” Flow chart.

Museums and Objects: Use this space to keep track of the museums and different objects for this activity.

Museum #1:

Museum #2:

Museum #3:

Copyright Museumathome.org, Gianna Romanelli, October 2026.